

NJBIZ - njbiz.com

Executive Spotlights

Close Up: Matthew Fleissig of Pathstone Federal Street

Sponsored Content, April 10, 2016 at 3:00 AM

President, Pathstone Federal Street

RESUME

What you do: Pathstone Federal Street is an independent, employee- and family-owned advisory firm that offers multigenerational families and institutions strategic wealth management and customized investment services.

Old gig: Prior to my role as president, I served as a managing director at Pathstone Family Office. My prior experience includes the role of principal for Harris, my chief financial officer investment advisory services and a financial planner at The Ayco Company, a Goldman Sachs company.

School ties: Muhlenberg College and Fairleigh Dickinson University

Family tree: Married to Fawn Fleissig with two children

Hometown: Grew up in Livingston and now live in Park Ridge

JUST JERSEY

When you brag about Jersey to people from out of state, you say: Taylor ham, diners and going to Action Park in the '90s and surviving!

Bruce, Bon Jovi, Whitney or Sinatra: Bruce and Bon Jovi

Favorite place to chow down: The Ritz Diner, Livingston; White Manna, Hackensack; and Varka, Ramsey

ALL YOU

What you wanted to be when you were 6: I wanted to be a meteorologist, but over time gravitated toward finance and computer science.

Historical figure you'd want to meet: Steve Jobs

Your passion: My family, skiing and Pathstone

Something about you that your co-workers don't know: I am able to program in six different computer languages.

Submit an Executive Close Up

Submit an Executive Spotlight

FAQ

You May Have Missed...

-  Princeton prof 'changing dynamic' of blood testing
- Lawmakers taking fresh look at one of NJ's oldest tax incentives
- Efforts address transit needs of those with autism
- State, business officials contemplate next generation of economic incentives

+ Leave a Comment

0 Comments